Isabelle Gautier and Dominique Petit appointed to the Board of Directors of Champagne Pol Roger

On Monday 29 June, the Supervisory Board of Champagne POL ROGER, presided by Christian de Billy, appointed two new members to the Board of Directors: Isabelle Gautier, Financial Director and Dominique Petit, Cellar Master.

They join Laurent d'Harcourt, President of the Board of Directors and Hubert de Billy.

Isabelle Gautier, 43 years old, obtained a degree in finance and accounting at the University of Reims. She joined Pol Roger in 2007 after 13 years of experience within a chartered accounting firm.

Passionately fond of music, this amateur pianist was promoted to Financial Director in July 2013.

Son, grandson and great-grandson of a Champagne winegrower, Dominique Petit, 60 years old, obtained his oenology diploma from the Science department of the University of Reims.

After more than 20 years spent with a prestigious Champagne House, he was recruited as Pol Roger's cellar master in 1999. This outstanding technician has deeply renovated and transformed the production tool of the family-owned company.

Pol Roger's dedication to excellence

Since its foundation in 1849, Pol Roger Company has passed on a noteworthy know-how ensuring the purity, elegance and refinement of its champagne wines whose quality is unanimously acknowledged, both by professionals and amateurs.

It is also one of the few remaining independent, great family-owned companies.

In 2014 Pol Roger sold 1,6 million bottles, of which over 80% were exported.
