POL ROGER Depuis 1849, excellence et indépendance

95 Pol Roger 2002 Extra Cuvée de Réserve Blanc de Blancs Brut (Champagne). This is a thoroughbred, elegant sparkler. With its delicate acidity, apple and grapefruit flavors, and tense, steely texture, it is an extremely well-blended wine. Although it is ready to drink now, it could certainly age in bottle for many years. Frederick Wildman & Sons, Ltd. Cellar Selection. —R.V.

96 Pol Roger 2002 Extra Cuvée de Réserve Vintage Brut (Champagne). The most recent vintage release from Pol Roger is this superb 2002. Notes of apple, almond, citrus and a hint of toast mingle together effortlessly. It can be consumed now, especially with food, but its mixture of maturity and freshness promise to age beautifully for many years to come. Frederick Wildman & Sons, Ltd. Cellar Selection. —R.V.
